

Still Dreaming

On August 28th, 1963, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. delivered a speech from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. to over 250,000 people during the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom.

His "I Have a Dream" speech remains a seminal moment in our history and continues as a cornerstone of what we aspire to - for our people, our country and our children.

We have all been touched by the events in Charlottesville.
Come join us to ensure that hate of any kind has no place in our community.
Bring your friends and family; a sign, banner and/or candles.
We'll gather in Whitey Domstad park and march together across the bridge.

When: Monday, August 28th
6:30 - 8:00 pm

Where: Whitey Domstad Park - Bremerton
(at the east end of the Manette bridge)

I am one more citizen marching against hatred.
Alone we are defenseless. Collected, we are sacred.

We will march by the millions. We will tremble and grieve.
We will praise and weep and laugh. We will believe.

We will be courageous with our love. We will risk danger
As we sing and sing and sing to welcome strangers.

("Hymn" - Sherman Alexie)
